

Machado vs King THE ACS DEBATE

Rod Machado and John King will share the stage for a fun and spirited one-on-one debate on the new Airman Certification Standards. Both Rod and John have very different ideas about the utility and value of the ACS, and each is a passionate advocate for his position. This is sure to be a fun time for all given that both Rod and John have a long history of involvement in the flight training business. While having a good time at this debate, we guarantee you plenty of education in the process. Moderated by Stephen Pope, Flying Magazine!
